

Your wedding Vows.

It sadly not possible to write your own vows and say them in a Church of England ceremony – this is not ‘Don’t Tell the Bride’.

Vows (set one)

I, N , take you, N ,
to be my wife,
to have and to hold
from this day forward;
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
till death us do part;
according to God's holy law.
In the presence of God I make this vow.

They loose hands.

The bride takes the bridegroom's right hand in hers, and says

I, N , take you, N ,
to be my husband,
to have and to hold
from this day forward;
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
till death us do part;
according to God's holy law.
In the presence of God I make this vow.

Vows (set two)

The bridegroom takes the bride's right hand in his, and says:

I, N , take you, N ,
to be my wife,
to have and to hold
from this day forward;
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
till death us do part,
according to God's holy law.
In the presence of God I make this vow.

They loose hands.

The bride takes the bridegroom's right hand in hers, and says:

I, N , take you, N ,
to be my husband,
to have and to hold
from this day forward;
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love, cherish, and obey,
till death us do part,
according to God's holy law.
In the presence of God I make this vow.

Vows (set three)

The bridegroom takes the bride's right hand in his, and says:

I, N , take thee, N , to my wedded wife,
to have and to hold from this day forward,
for richer for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
till death us do part,
according to God's holy ordinance;
and thereto I plight thee my troth.

They loose hands.

The bride takes the bridegroom's right hand in hers, and says:

I, N , take thee, N, to my wedded husband,
to have and to hold from this day forward,
for better for worse,
for richer for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love, cherish, and to obey,
till death us do part,
according to God's holy ordinance;
and thereto I give thee my troth.
